WELCOME

TO WOLVERHAMPTON RACECOURSE

Wolverhampton Racecourse, situated in the historic Dunstall Park within the City of Wolverhampton, is one of Britain's busiest racecourses, hosting more than 80 horse racing fixtures across the year, including a number of themed racedays.

Alongside being a bustling racing track, Wolverhampton Racecourse is home to a conference centre, Greyhound track, and Holiday Inn Hotel, making it a popular choice for venue hire.

THE HISTORY OF WOLVERHAMPTON

RACING BEGAN IN WOLVERHAMPTON IN 1825 AND MOVED TO THE CURRENT RACECOURSE SITE IN 1888, WITH THE FIRST RACE MEETING BEING HELD ON THE 13TH OF AUGUST.

In 1993 the site was redeveloped removing the original National Hunt Track and building the All Weather Track, in doing so becoming Britain's first floodlit track. Also built at the same time was the new Grandstand, Executive Boxes and Restaurants, new Stables, Workshops, Houses and a Hotel. We are proud that in 1994, Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II re-opened the new Wolverhampton Racecourse.

National Hunt and Point to Point continued on a new track until 2004 when we installed a Polytrack surface and realigned the All-Weather Track.

In 2014, another major investment was made into a high-performance Tapeta surface, the first in Great Britain. The new track received excellent reviews from jockeys, trainers, owners and racegoers after reopening following a three month resurfacing period.

In early 2025 works began to move the Perry Barr Greyhound Track to Wolverhampton Racecourse. With the project reaching completion after six months, the new Dunstall Park Greyhound Track opened in the centre of the All-Weather Track in August 2025 - making Dunstall Park the first dual track in the UK.

Wolverhampton Racecourse now welcomes 120,000 visitors each year across more than 80 race fixtures, themed raceday events, and conferences.
